

Please do not lessent the current Indiana Telephone Privacy Law. Before it went into effect we were averaging 2-3 nuisance calls per day, many of them computer generated, which kept coming through until we were the first person to pick up. It has been a real blessing to no longer have these annoying calls coming in.